Merchandise

Return Policies and Process

Only incorrect, defective or damaged merchandise can be returned or exchanged. All merchandise returns and exchanges must be initiated by contacting an awards representative.

If the Participant receives an incorrect or defective item he/she can choose to receive the correct functioning merchandise or a full refund of the Rewards including shipping and handling. Restocking fees in addition to shipping and handling fees may be applied on items returned that are not damaged or not the wrong item. This would be deducted from the amount of Rewards refunded to Participant's Account for a return.

There are some exceptions when returns are not allowed:

- Hazardous items that are gas-powered or contain flammable liquids.
- Computer laptops and desktops more than 14 days after delivery.
- Any product missing the serial number or UPC
- Gift cards/certificates that were not damaged or defective when received.
- Gourmet gift baskets.

Also, items that are opened, used or shipped more than 30 days ago may not be eligible for an exchange or refund.

Return Process

1. Contact an awards representative to initiate the request. Note: you will need to provide either the order confirmation email or shipping document which contains pertinent information such as order number, item number and item name. Providing all requested information will expedite processing.
2. Within three (3) business days the Participant will receive confirmation whether the item is eligible for return. If eligible, the Participant will be provided with return shipping labels and any additional instructions.
3. Return merchandise
 - a. Return labels must be used for all exchange and refunds within the time frame designated (usually 10 calendar days); once the label expires the item is no longer eligible for return.

- b. Each return mailing label is coded for a specific shipment and specific items; please do not include items from other orders, or other items and/or shipment from the same order, in the same box, or the Participant will not receive the correct refund.
 - c. For special items that require a pick up by UPS, a “call-tag” will be issued. UPS will attempt a pickup at the address on the order during the next 3 business days. No specific time can be provided for the pick up as this is dependent upon the UPS route in the area.
 - d. If a specialty carrier is required for large items, the carrier will call the phone number on the order to arrange a pickup date and time.
 - e. Return labels, call tags and carrier pickups are valid only for returns shipped within the U.S.
4. The Participant may expect to receive Rewards within four (4) weeks after returned merchandise is received by the Rewards Center.
- a. Eligible Rewards will be posted back to the participant’s account.
5. Replacement items are typically shipped within 4 weeks of the merchandise being received by the Rewards Center.

- Merchant direct returns only allow exchanges or store credit; return for Rewards is not available.

Backordered Items

The Program Site is a "live" catalog which means items come in and out of stock. When an item is shown on the online catalog, it is in fact available, but by the time the order is processed with the supplier, it may be out of stock at that exact time. There is no way to confirm in advance if or when an item will become out of stock as it is a live catalog. Items which are no longer available (NLA) or on back ordered for more than thirty (30) days may be cancelled due to unavailability; a full refund of Rewards will be processed for the item(s) cancelled.

Pricing

Merchandise prices include shipping and handling. Shipping and handling prices are determined at the time of selection and vary based on the ship to address and the items in the Participant's purchase.

Due to the real-time nature and availability of items in this catalog, the latest, real-time pricing and availability will be updated when item is added to cart.

Travel

General Information

1. Travel management services are provided by Aspire Loyalty Travel Solutions, LLC. and its affiliates ("Aspire"), a service provider to the Program. Aspire acts as a service bureau that provides value added service to retail travel agents and consumers.
2. In these Terms, "Travel Suppliers" means the airlines, hotels, car rental agencies, cruise lines, railroads, tour operators and other service providers whose products and services are made available through the Program. The Program Terms incorporate by reference the terms of each Travel Supplier's terms and conditions, as applicable. The Participant is responsible for checking the applicable Travel Supplier site(s) for terms and conditions which may be applicable to the Recipient.
3. All travel services purchased using Rewards must be purchased through the Program and not with the Travel Supplier directly. Travel services are provided solely by the Travel Suppliers. Aspire and the Program are not liable for the failure of the Travel Suppliers to perform the services offered by the Travel Suppliers. Travel Suppliers are independent contractors and not agents or employees of the Program or Aspire. Except as expressly stated herein, the Program and/or Aspire assumes no responsibility for actions relating to travel services beyond the control of the Program and/or Aspire or their respective employees. Unless prohibited by law, the Program and Aspire shall not be liable for any acts, failure to perform, errors, omissions, representations, warranties, breaches, negligence, gross negligence or willful misconduct of any such Travel Suppliers, including, but not limited to, any personal injuries, death, property damage or loss, inconvenience, loss of enjoyment, mental distress or other similar matter, delayed departure, missed connection, substitution of services or accommodations, termination of service, or changes in fares and rates, and/or cancellation or double booking of reservations by the Travel Supplier. The Program and Aspire do not guarantee or insure the performance of services by the Travel Suppliers, the financial position of the Travel Suppliers or reimbursement to the Participant from any loss experienced as a result of an act or omission of the Travel Suppliers.

4. In no event shall the Program and/or Aspire and/or their affiliates be liable for any direct, indirect, punitive, incidental, special, or consequential damages arising out of, or in connection with, the use of any information, products, and services obtained from a Travel Supplier even if reservations are provided through this Site, Rewards Call Center, or otherwise, whether based on contract, tort, strict liability, or otherwise, even if we have been advised of the possibility of damages. Because some states/jurisdictions do not allow the exclusion or limitation of liability for consequential or incidental damages, the above limitation may not apply to the Participant.
5. In those situations, in which a Travel Supplier defaults prior to providing services, the Participant may pursue any recourse against the Travel Supplier for refund, which may be permitted by law or statute.
6. Travel reservations are subject to the rules of the applicable Travel Supplier on the respective itinerary. A reservation is not complete until confirmed/ticketed. The passenger ticket(s) when issued, or electronic reservation shall constitute a contract between the Travel Supplier and the ticketed party. Some reservations cannot be cancelled or changed, other reservations may incur Travel Supplier fees to cancel or change.
7. The Participant acknowledges the Reward portion of the transaction will be paid for with Rewards from the Program.
8. Charges in excess of the loyalty Rewards from the Program will be charged to the Participant's payment card. If applicable, any fees or redemption associated charges from the Travel Supplier will appear on the Participant's monthly card statement.
9. Travel Supplier, the Program and/or Aspire each have the right to cancel the booking in the event of non-payment or payment dispute.
10. All refund requests may be initiated by calling the Program Travel Rewards Call Center, and the Participant must follow any instructions given to provide backup documentations or to return negotiable documents (i.e. paper airline tickets, redeemable certificates or vouchers, etc.) issued which must be returned prior to processing any refund. All refund claims must be made within 30 days after the scheduled departure date.
11. Because many different Travel Suppliers may be used for each aspect of travel (i.e., for air, hotel, car rentals, cruise, activities and vacations), IF THE PARTICIPANT WISHES TO MAKE CANCELLATIONS OR CHANGES TRAVEL, THE PARTICIPANT MUST MAKE SUCH REQUESTS FOR EACH ASPECT OF TRAVEL. For example, if changing air travel dates, that request will not result in any changes to hotel dates. Neither the Program nor Aspire are responsible for any credit or voucher issued by any Travel Supplier.

12. If a payment card was used in conjunction or solely for a travel redemption and/or transaction, and a refund is processed to the payment card, the timing of when the funds will be available on the Participant's payment card account is dependent upon the individual financial institution which issued the payment card, and may take up to 1 to 2 billing cycles or up to 90 days.
13. All offers, prices, and conditions of sale may be subject to, change without notice, advance purchase, eligibility, seating, or other limitations, travel days, dates, minimum or maximum stays, holidays, seasons, blackout dates, stopovers, and/or wait listing restrictions, reservation validation limitations of up to one year (if any extension permitted, penalties/restrictions may apply); and/or other conditions/restrictions.

General Travel Information

1. At all times throughout the trip, the Participant will need to present the required government issued photo ID for security checks at airports, hotels, car rental, cruise, activity and vacation locations and may be required for attractions and other products as deemed necessary by the relevant Travel Suppliers and must match the name on the reservation. In addition to the required government issued ID, proof of citizenship (Passport) is required for international travel (for countries outside of the United States) and may require a visa and satisfaction of health requirements. Passports for international travel must be valid for a period of at least six (6) months from the return date. Air carriers cannot board any passenger who fails to provide the required documents. Please note that it is the Participant's sole responsibility to ensure that the traveler meet the passport, visa, and/or health requirements of the countries he/she wish to visit, including any layover or stopovers and return entry into the United States. Many countries require a passport be valid for a minimum period from the date of arrival into that country. For any questions regarding what the applicable minimum period is and any other conditions or passport/visa requirements for travel, the Participant should contact the corresponding local consulate of the countries to which he/she is travelling. Visa policies vary by country <http://www.travel.state.gov/content/visas/en.html> should be obtained prior to departure, and are the sole responsibility of the traveler.
2. The Program and Aspire do not have any special knowledge regarding (i) the suitability for disabled persons for any travel itinerary; or (ii) unsafe conditions, health hazards, weather hazards, or climate extremes at locations to which the Participant may travel.
3. For information concerning possible dangers at international destinations, we recommend contacting the Travel Advisory Section of the U.S. State Department at 202-647-5225 or <http://travel.state.gov>.
4. For medical information, we recommend contacting the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention at 800-232-4636. For foreign health requirements and dangers, go to <http://www.cdc.gov/travel>.

5. Minors under the age of 18 who are traveling alone or with only one parent may be required to have additional documentation. Please contact the airline or the nearest Consulate of the country where traveling for additional information.
6. If the Participant's itinerary involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, the provisions of a treaty known as the Warsaw Convention or the Montreal Convention, may be applicable to the entire trip, including any portion entirely within the country of origin or destination. These Conventions govern and may limit the liability of certain air carriers for death of or personal injury to passengers and/or loss of or damage to baggage.
7. Special requests made to a Travel Supplier are requests only and cannot be guaranteed. Fees, taxes and charges may apply depending upon the service request.
8. Certain rate types do not permit credit for airline, hotel or car loyalty programs.
9. Government imposed departure or entry taxes may not be included in ticket fees. The Participant should be prepared to pay these taxes in cash at the location.

Airline Travel

1. Airline tickets are NON-REFUNDABLE and NON-CHANGEABLE unless permitted by the terms of the fare and are subject to airline rules, penalties and fare difference. Airline policies are subject to change at any time without notice. Airline tickets must be booked at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to departure.
2. Any fees associated with the applicable redemption or ticket purchase will be the responsibility of the traveler at the time of booking. These fees include, but are not limited to, ticketing fees, airline fuel surcharges, and security fees. Government entry/exit fees may apply, depending on the destination. These are the sole responsibility and may be additional to the Participant's booking charges.
3. In addition, the loyalty Rewards price listed for airline tickets does not include any applicable baggage fees, meals, beverages or services fees. Restrictions may apply.
4. Changes to and cancellations of airline tickets can be made only if the Travel Supplier and specific air ticket rules permit the changes or cancellations. Travel Suppliers may charge a ticket service fee for all exchanges, modifications, or cancellations, in addition to airline penalties and fare difference.
5. Unused tickets contain no value if not canceled prior to departure. To inquire about refundability of a fare being considered, the Participant is to call the appropriate airline.
6. All reservations must be made in the EXACT name of the person traveling. Tickets are non-transferable. Name changes are not permitted. The Participant will be responsible for any charges issued by the Travel Supplier due to incorrect passenger information entered or provided to the Rewards Call Center at the time of making the reservation.
7. The Transportation Security Administration (TSA) requires the Participant to provide the full name, date of birth, and gender for the purpose of watch list screening. Failure to provide the full name, date of birth, and gender may result in denial of transport or denial of authority to enter the boarding area. TSA may share information provided with law enforcement or intelligence agencies or others under its published system of records notice. For more on TSA privacy policies, or to review the system of records notice and the privacy impact assessment, please see the TSA Web site at www.tsa.gov.

8. It is recommended that passengers check in with the airline a minimum of 2 hours prior to scheduled departure time for domestic flight itineraries and 3 hours prior to scheduled departure time for international itineraries due to federal security requirements. Please note that airline schedules change frequently. Please reconfirm all flight dates and times with the airline 24 hours prior to departure for domestic flights and at least 72 hours for international flights. Advanced passenger information (API) is also required by the airline at least 72 hours prior to departure per U.S. Customs and Border Control Agency for all international flights traveling into, out of and over U.S. territories. Information needed can include but is not limited to nationality, country of residence, passport/visa number, expiration date, country of issue and destination address. Failure to provide this information may result in delayed/denied boarding or cancellation of flights. Any costs incurred due to failure to provide this information will be at the passenger's expense. To learn more about API please see cbp.gov/apis.
9. Upgrades are not permitted on certain itineraries. Please check with the carrier directly.
10. Review the itinerary, as code-share flights may exist. If a code-share flight exists in the itinerary, passengers must check in with the operating airline on day of departure.
11. All tickets will be issued as e-tickets, unless e-tickets are not available due to airline restrictions. If an e-ticket is unavailable, the Rewards Call Center will mail a paper ticket to the Participant at no charge. However, if an e-ticket is available and the Participant request a paper ticket, he/she may be charged a service fee and shipping/handling charges. All paper tickets will be shipped within 48 hours to the address provided. If the paper ticket(s) is lost, stolen, or destroyed, contact the Rewards Call Center immediately for details on how to process the claim. The Participant may need to purchase a new ticket to travel while waiting for any permitted refund or credit. Additionally, remain responsible for payment due for the lost, stolen, or destroyed ticket(s) unless a refund or credit is issued by the carrier.
12. Airline tickets for minors under the age of 17 traveling alone cannot be redeemed or purchased in the Program as each airline has their own rules for unaccompanied minors. These tickets must be purchased directly with the airline.
13. We reserve the right to correct errors in any advertised price and, if applicable, give the Participant an option to either cancel the reservation or allow the Rewards Call Center to collect an amount equal to any increase in price from the provided credit or debit card, prior to departure.
14. The Program Terms incorporate by reference the terms of each airline's contract of carriage. Passengers may inspect the full text of the contract of carriage at each airline's airport or city ticket offices. The incorporated terms of the contract of carriage may include, but are not limited to: (1) Limits on the airline's liability for personal injury or death of passengers, and for loss, damage, or delay of goods and baggage, including fragile or perishable goods; (2) Claim restrictions, including time periods within which passengers must file a claim or bring an action against the airline for its acts or omissions or those of its agents; (3) Rights of the airline to change terms of the contract; (4) Rules about reconfirmation of reservations, check-in times, and refusal to carry; (5)

- Rights of the airline and limitations concerning delay or failure to perform service, including schedule changes, substitution of alternate airline or aircraft, and rerouting.
15. Please note that seats, meals, frequent flyer and other special requests are requests only. There is no guarantee that the Participant will be assigned the seat(s) requested. There is also no guarantee that meal(s), frequent flyer and other special requests will be honored by the airline. It is therefore recommended the Participant contact the airline directly to confirm these requests prior to the scheduled departure date.
 16. Airline flights may be overbooked, and there is a slight chance that a seat will not be available on a flight for which a person has a confirmed reservation. If the flight is overbooked, no one will be denied a seat until airline personnel first ask for volunteers willing to give up their reservation in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, the airline will deny boarding to other persons in accordance with its particular boarding priority. With few exceptions, persons denied boarding involuntarily are entitled to compensation. The complete rules for the payment of compensation and each airline's boarding priorities are available at all airport ticket counters and boarding locations. Some airlines do not apply these consumer protections to travel from some foreign countries, although other consumer protections may be available. Check with the Travel Supplier.
 17. For all flights departing from the European Union and all flights to the European Union if on an European operating carrier, if Participant is denied boarding or the flight is canceled or delayed for at least two hours, ask at the check-in counter or boarding gate for a document stating travelers' rights, particularly with regard to compensation and assistance. For further information on air passenger rights for these flights, see <http://ec.europa.eu/transport/themes/passengers/air/>.
 18. Failure to use any flight segment may result in automatic cancellation of all continuing and return reservations. The Participant must advise the Travel Supplier if the travel plans change en route.
 19. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in traveler's luggage or on his/her person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives and radioactive materials. Examples: Paints, lighter fluid, fireworks, tear gases, oxygen bottles, and radio-pharmaceuticals. There are special exceptions for small quantities (up to 70 ounces total) of medicinal and toilet articles carried in luggage and certain smoking materials carried by the traveler. For further information contact the Travel Supplier directly.
 20. Please go to <http://www.dot.gov/office-policy/aviation-policy/aircraft-disinsection-requirements> to learn about the use of insecticides in certain flights.
 21. A reservation is subject to cancellation by the Travel Supplier if the passenger is not available for boarding at the loading gate at least 15 minutes prior to scheduled departure for flights between U.S. points or up to 30 minutes for all other travel. Be sure to check with the airline as these times vary by airline.
 22. Failure to occupy reserved space may result in the Travel Supplier canceling, continuing, connecting, or returning space reserved by the passenger.

23. The Travel Supplier reserves the right to refuse carriage to any person who has acquired a ticket in violation of applicable law or carrier's tariffs, rules or regulations.
24. Air reservations can be booked up to 331 days in advance. Return flight must be no more than 328 days from the date of departure.
25. Some airlines may require a birth certificate for infants under the age of two traveling without charge.

This is required for travel to or through Canada. Contact the consult of the country for additional questions on documentation that will need to be provided.

2. The Participant is advised if traveling with excess baggage, he/she will have to pay any excess baggage fee assessed by each airline. These fees are to be paid directly to the airline upon using such service.
3. When there are two or more airlines involved for connecting flights the Participant may have to reclaim his/her bags at the connecting airport and check-in again to continue the journey. Some airlines charge an extra fee each time bags are checked-in with that airline. Additional fees may apply and must be paid directly to the Travel Supplier.
4. Liability for loss, delay, or damage to baggage is limited unless a higher value is declared in advance and additional charges are paid. Excess valuation may be declared on certain types of articles. Some Travel Suppliers assume no liability for fragile, valuable or perishable articles. As user of the Site, the Participant is in control of all his/her travel-planning.

The Program and Aspire are committed to protecting the Participant's personal information. This Policy explains how personal information provided to the Site is collected and used, as well as offline when communicating with the Rewards Call Center. This Policy does not cover Travel Suppliers, third party providers, distributors, or suppliers, which may or may not be subject to their own privacy policies.

The Participant should read this Policy before submitting any personal information to us. By using the Site, the Participant consents to the collection and use of personal information as outlined in this Policy. If the Participant does not agree with the content of this Policy, he/she should refrain from using the Site.

Personal Information We Collect and How it is Used

In General. We may collect and store any personal information entered on the Site or provide to us in some other manner. Personal information is data that identifies the Participant, and includes (but is not limited to) name, business or personal email address, physical address and direct telephone number. The Participant is not obligated to provide us with any personal information, unless or until he/she chooses to purchase a reservation or engage in other transactions on the Site. We strive to limit the type of personal information that we collect to information that helps us accomplish our goal of providing a high level of service for the benefit of our existing and prospective customers.

Purchases. In order to purchase travel and related services through the Site, the Participant may provide us with certain personal information such as name, credit card number and expiration date, credit card billing address, telephone number, e-mail address and the name or names of the person(s) traveling (if not Participant). We may also ask for other personal information, such as Participant's frequent traveller numbers. We require this information so that we can process, fulfill and confirm the Participant's reservations and transactions and keep the Participant informed of each transaction's status. If Participant is making a reservation for one or more travellers, Participant will need to make sure that each of these other travellers agrees, in advance, that personal information may be disclosed to us. For convenience, we make certain information about the reservation available to the Participant or other persons authorized to receive such information. For example, if the Participant forgets the flight number, another authorized person by the Participant may retrieve that information from us, after providing information sufficient to confirm the identity or that such other person is authorized to receive that information.

TSA Secure Flight. Under the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) Secure Flight program most air passengers are now required to provide their full name, date of birth, and gender (plus redress number, when applicable) at the time of booking. We will not disclose this information to any third parties other than the applicable airline(s). If the Participant is making a reservation for travellers other than the Participant, he/she should make sure each traveller agrees, in advance, that their personal information may be disclosed to us for this purpose. Providing this information is voluntary; however, if it is not provided, traveller may be subject to additional screening or denied transport or authorization to enter a sterile area. TSA may share information provided with law enforcement or intelligence agencies or others under its published system of records notice.

Information Collected Automatically. When visiting the Site, we automatically log generic information about Participant's computer and computer connection to the Internet. This information may consist of things such as device information, IP address, operating system and browser software information, and the activities conducted by the user while on the Site. An IP address is a number that allows computers attached to the Internet, such as our web servers, to know where to send data back to the user, such as the pages of the Site the user wishes to view. We collect this information because it helps us analyze such things as what items visitors are likely to click on most, the way visitors are clicking through the Site, how many visitors are surfing to various pages on the Site, how long visitors to the Site are staying and how often they are visiting. It also helps us diagnose problems with our servers and lets us better administer our systems. It is possible to determine from an IP address a visitor's Internet Service Provider (ISP) and the approximate geographic location of his or her point of connectivity. We may also use some of this information, such as the pages visited on our Site, to send the Participant e-mail messages focused on destinations of interest, unless user previously opted out of receiving such messages. We also use session data to help prevent fraud or unauthorized use of our Site.

Use of cookies. Cookies are pieces of information, usually a small text file that a site transfers to user's computer's hard drive and resides there for record keeping purposes. Cookies can make the Web more useful by storing information about user's preferences on a particular site. Cookies are only read by the server that placed them, and are unable to do such things as run programs on the computer, plant viruses or harvest Participant's personal information. The use of cookies is an industry standard and very common on the Internet. Cookies allow us to serve the Participant better and more efficiently by retrieving information previously entered by the user, such as e-mail addresses and zip codes thereby personalizing the experience at the Site. Cookies in and of themselves do not personally identify users, although they do identify a user's computer.

The blocking of Site cookies may disable certain features on the Site and may make it impossible to purchase or use certain services available on the Site. Please note that it is possible to block cookie activity from certain websites while permitting cookies from sites the Participant trusts.

Disclosure of Personal Information

When the Participant reserves or purchases travel services through the Site, we provide to the airline, hotel, car-rental agency, travel agency or other involved third party provider, distributor, or supplier only that portion of Participant's personal information that is needed for the successful fulfillment of the travel arrangements. We book most of our travel services through the GDS (Global Distribution System), and in doing so must provide certain of Participant's personal information to them (as we would with any other GDS we now use or may use in the future). We use non-personally identifiable information in aggregate form to build higher quality, more useful online services by performing statistical analyses of the collective characteristics and behavior of our customers and visitors, and by measuring demographics and interests regarding specific areas of our Site. We may provide anonymous statistical information based on this data to suppliers, advertisers, affiliates and other current and potential business partners. We may also use such aggregate data to inform these third parties as to the number of people who have seen and clicked on links to their websites.

We may also share Participant's personal information with other companies or individuals in the following instances:

- In response to subpoenas, court orders, or other legal process; to establish or exercise our legal rights; to defend against legal claims; or as otherwise required by law. In such cases we reserve the right to raise or waive any legal objection or right available to us.
- When we believe it is appropriate to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding illegal or suspected illegal activities; to protect and defend the rights, property, or safety of the travel provider, our customers, or others; and in connection with these Terms and other agreements.
- In connection with a corporate transaction, such as a divestiture, merger, consolidation, or asset sale, or in the unlikely event of bankruptcy.

International Transfers of Personal Information

The Site is operated in the United States and, depending on the Participant's country of residence, the submission of personal information to the Site may involve some transfer of personal information to the United States. The Participant should be aware that privacy laws in the United States may not provide protections equivalent to those of the country of residence. We have taken steps to ensure that appropriate levels of protection necessary to maintain the security and quality of the personal information are in place and that any transferred data is processed only in accordance with this Policy.
